About Milk and Night Curatorial:

An independent curatorial concept by artist and performance director Coco Dolle, Milk and Night explores contemporary art and feminism. Focusing on inter-generational and inter-sectional conversations Milk and Night Curatorial projects have been exhibited at SPRING/BREAK Art Show, SELECT Fair Miami, SENSEI Gallery, The Untitled Space and The Lodge Gallery. Recent press includes Forbes, Artnet, Creators Project/VICE, Purple Magazine and HuffPost. Insta: @milkandnightcuratorial

About Catinca Tabacaru Gallery:

Representing fourteen artists from five continents, Catinca Tabacaru Gallery takes a nuanced and empathetic approach to projects, gravitating towards art that impacts the self and society. In 2017, the Gallery opened its second location in Harare, Zimbabwe. The Gallery expands past its walls with the CTG Collective, which creates valuable dialogue and collaboration with artists embedded in different cultures. Insta: @catincatabacaru

Lindsay Dye is a performance artist exploring notions of temporality between reality and digital life. She holds an MFA from Pratt Institute and is a regular writer for Gallery Gurls. Her work has been exhibited and performed internationally including at Novella Gallery (NYC), The Society of Korea Photography, Dissenters' Gallery (UK). Dye's work was recently featured in Ravelin Magazine and Vice Magazine. Insta: @dylindsay

The Henry --> TRANSgressive

The Henry is a public entity of the private self of Henry Lau. His work explores the perception between the public and the private transforming the body with performance art and object making. The Henry was recently featured on the Downtown Kids TV 2017 and is a regular contributor to Massive Goods & the Bubble_T collective. Insta: @henryisreading

Jahmal B. Golden --> TRANSition

Jahmal B. Golden is a NYC-based trans-femme POC artist who is constantly finding new ways of conveying their intersectional existence through their creative abstractions. They spend most of their time pondering the pendulum that swings between 'nature' and 'grace' - measuring the predictable force that propels them back and forth in daily meditations. Golden's recent exhibitions include New Museum, Current Projects Gallery (FL) and ArtSpace Mexico. Their work was featured in Posture Magazine and I-D Magazine. Insta: @chatnoir_____

Jennifer Elster —> TRANSaction

Jennifer Elster is an American experimental artist, filmmaker, writer, photographer, performer. Evolving in the New York underground since a teenager, Elster has collaborated with such artists as David Bowie and Yoko Ono. Her body of work explores human psychology, examines existential territories and a deeper awareness of our current world crisis. She has performed at the New Museum along with Jonas Mekas, and exhibited her video art at Central Booking along with Carolee Schneemann and Kate Millett. Elster's work has been featured in Whitewall magazine, The Art Newspaper, The Huffington Post, Blouin Art Info and Rolling Stone. Insta: @jenniferelster

Jerome AB --> TRANSlucency

Jerome AB is a Kenyan-born movement artist, choreographer and architectural designer based in Brooklyn, NY and a member of the experimental dance collective Otion Front Studio. While his practice incorporates various disciplines such as installation art and dance, his body of work at large focuses on an on-going video performance series featuring an expressionless humanoid character. Jerome has recently performed with the dance duo FlucT for an event commissioned by Performa at The Lever House. Insta: @_slug
