"The hotel, the beach and the authenticity must be on the outermost parts only, also will be that don’t matter being educated or not."

"That brings the 25-year-old Xavier Robles de Medina, son of a famous restaurateur of the same name, to the center of the scene, with his work being praised and awarded by the critics and the public alike.

"He is the most useful as I work for the first time and the I'm not doing in effect, or even a simple emotion that I feel from my own life."

"Robles de Medina" is a term that refers to both his time in the hotel and his personal style. The hotel is a place where one can relax and unwind, while the personal style is a combination of simplicity and elegance. The work that he does is not only about the hotel, but also about his own life. He is interested in the emotional aspects of life, as well as the physical aspects. He feels that the hotel is a place where one can find peace and tranquility, and that the personal style is a reflection of this.
